Candidate Late Arrival Policy

2025-2026

KEY STAFF INVOLVED IN CONTINGENCY PLAN

Role	Name(s)
Head of Centre	Stuart Worden
Senior Leaders	Louise Cooper Katie Findlater
Exams Officer	Charlotte Byrne

Purpose of the procedure.

This policy is reviewed and updated annually to ensure that candidates who arrive late to examinations at The BRIT School are managed in accordance with current requirements and regulations. This policy confirms that The BRIT School reserves the right to exercise discretion whether to allow a candidate who arrives after the start of the examination to enter the examination room and sit the exam, and confirms that appropriate arrangements are in place for the management of late arrivals in order to maintain the security and integrity of exams, and that the correct procedures are followed.

The purpose of this policy is to confirm the arrangements for candidates who arrive late for an exam at The BRIT School.

A candidate will be considered late if they arrive after the start of the exam and (for an exam which lasts an hour or more) up to 10.00am for a morning examination or up to 2.30pm for an afternoon examination.

A candidate will be considered very late if they arrive more than one hour after the awarding body's published starting time for an exam which lasts one hour or more (eg. after 10.00am for a morning exam or after 2.30pm for an afternoon exam), or after the awarding body's published finishing time for an examination that lasts less than one hour (ICE 21.3).

Candidates who arrive late

The following procedures are applied at The BRIT School in relation to candidates who arrive late to examinations:

- A candidate who arrives after the start of the examination may be allowed to enter the examination room and sit the examination (ICE 21.1).
- A candidate who arrives late, and is permitted to sit the examination, will be allowed the full time for the examination (ICE 21.2).
- A candidate who arrives within one hour of the awarding body's published starting time for an examination which lasts an hour or more, i.e. a candidate arriving up to 10.00am for a morning examination or up to 2.30pm for an afternoon examination will be permitted by the centre to sit the examination.
- A candidate who arrives after 10.00am for a morning examination will be considered very late (ICE 21.3) and will be permitted by the centre to sit the examination.
- A candidate who arrives after 2.30pm for an afternoon examination will be considered very late (ICE 21.3) and will be permitted by the centre to sit the examination.
- A candidate who arrives after the awarding body's published finishing time for an examination that lasts less than one hour will be considered very late (ICE 21.3) and will be permitted by the centre to sit the examination.
- A candidate who arrives very late will be warned that the awarding body may not accept their script (ICE 21.4).
- A candidate who arrives in the afternoon for a paper that had been rearranged for a morning session, may be allowed to take the paper at the published time, as long as the candidate has not had any contact with candidates who sat the paper earlier (ICE 21.5). The awarding body will be informed of the situation and will decide whether to accept the script (ICE 21.6).

In all cases the centre will submit declarations for the very late arrival of candidates for examinations, in accordance with the current JCQ document Instructions for conducting examinations (GR 5.9).

Roles and responsibilities

The role of the exams office/officer

- Warn a candidate who arrives very late that the awarding body may not accept their script (ICE 21.4).
- Inform invigilators of the policy/process for dealing with candidates who arrive late/very late through training.
- Provide an exam room incident log for invigilators to record relevant information relating to candidates who arrive late/very late.
- Send the script of a candidate who arrives late/very late to the awarding body/examiner in the normal way (ICE 21.4).

Submit on the Centre Admin Portal (CAP), Form JCQ/VLA - Report on candidate admitted very late to examination room within seven days of the examination having taken place, providing the following details:

- the time the candidate came under centre staff supervision.
- the actual starting and finishing times of the examination.
- the time the candidate started the examination.
- the time the candidate finished the examination.
- the reason the candidate arrived late, including any details of special arrangements made for the candidate to reach the centre, any assurances that the candidate did not access and was not made aware of the paper's content prior to sitting the examination (ICE 21.4).

The role of invigilators

- Ensure candidates who arrive late/very late are given the required instructions prior to starting the exam (the invigilator's announcement) without disturbing other candidates.
- Ensure relevant information is recorded on the exam room incident log relating to candidates who arrive late/very late.
- Allow a candidate who arrived late/very late, and is allowed the full time to do the examination, to continue after the normal finishing time, instructing them to stop working after the full time allowed has passed (ICE 26.2).
